SLAUGHTERHOUSES:

The Council continue to lease the other five premises (one to each of the following villages)—Stokesley, Great Ayton, Ingleby Greenhow, Hutton Rudby and Ingleby Arncliffe and operate these as public slaughterhouses.

The five premises are registered with the Meat and Livestock Commission and a levy of 20np per head for cattle, 5np for calves, 8·8np for pigs and 1·7np for sheep has to be paid to the Commission. The cost of the levy is recovered from individual butchers.

MEAT INSPECTION:

The Inspectors continued to meet the requirements of individual butchers and maintain 100% inspection by working outside normal working hours, particularly on Bank Holidays.

Fees for inspection and marking continued at the rate of 18np per head for cattle, 5np for calves and pigs and 4np for sheep.

The number of animals slaughtered and inspected in the slaughterhouses since 1954 is as follows:
